Contents

1 Week of Oct 2

1.1 Wednesday

- our designs can have implicit or explicit information

- we should strive to keep relevant information explicit where possible

- That's the difference between a model which has implicit information

- and a drafting which has explicit information

- tailor information to the design process